Dear Parent/Guardian,

Your child has expressed an interest in becoming a member of Dynamic Youth Syndicate Inc. (DYS), a new West Allis-West Milwaukee non-profit organization for kids 12-17 years old. DYS offers a safe and nurturing environment where kids can meet and work with other local teens to plan community projects. DYS is founded by Jennifer Statza, a licensed educator with years of experience working with children and teens.

DYS offers members an opportunity to:

- meet and work with other teens who share common interests
- identify problems in the community that are meaningful to them
- generate potential solutions that involve local businesses and/or other members of the community
- implement a plan; monitor and sustain the plan through advocacy
- become youth leaders who affect positive change

By signing below, you grant permission for your child to participate in any DYS programs including meetings, organized member events, and participation in local volunteer events or other related commitments.

- Adult supervision is provided during all scheduled meetings, events and planned activities
- Participants are required to sign in and out
- No transportation is provided
- There is no fee for participation in any DYS program or event

While this agreement grants permission for participation, Dynamic Youth Syndicate is not responsible for any decisions or actions made by your child beyond our designated public meeting or event locations.

Currently, DYS does not have a permanent location. Meetings take place at Inspiration Studios; 1600 S. 73rd Street in West Allis.

Locations for other planned events will be announced as they occur.
